'Squad leader during infantry basic training at Camp Breckinridge, Ky., home base of the 101st Airborne Div. Attended Counterintelligence Corp School at Fort Holabird, Baltimore, MD.

Served in CIC Louisville Field Office doing security clearance and in charge of files of known left wing groups, sympathizers, activities that could effect the Army establishment especially troops from Fort Knox. Was liaison with the FBI, OSI and other government agencies.

Wore civilian clothes and rented an apartment with three other agents.

My wife, Margaret, and I went together for five years and were married January 24, 1953, while in service. We rented apartments until discharged in August, 1953.

90% of my basic training company went to Korea and I have always remembered and honored them for their sacrifice. My life has been blessed and continue to serve HIM. '
